Dear Friends in Christ,

As we have entered this season of Lent, you may have noticed a few liturgical changes. Most are directly tied to the season of Lent. The lack of flowers or plants, the missing Gloria and Alleluia, and the absence of a recessional hymn all reflect this penitential season drawing us towards the events of our salvation, Jesus's passion, death, and resurrection. As well, we add to the change in seasons by using the Chant Mass parts in Latin. The color for this season is purple and I prefer more of the Roman purple. It has a bit more pink in it thAn the Advent purple and speaks a bit more of the bitterness of the passion of our Lord.

Finally, you may have noticed this past Sunday, and now, we are making a bit more use of the Communion patens at the time of Communion. While they were never abrogated in terms of their use, following the Council they simply disappeared. They have a great amount of utility, both in catching Hosts that fall, just a couple even in the last few weeks, and to catch any crumbs. They also can add to the sense of reverence so that we regard His presence with solemnity and care.

I mentioned a couple weeks ago that I would talk about a few almsgiving opportunities. We have already had a couple appear on our horizon. The Ash Wednesday collection was for the Interfaith Food Bank. We also had our Annual Catholic Appeal just a couple weeks ago. Some others you may want to consider this Lent might be our own Society of St. Vincent de Paul, the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (especially for those suffering in Syria, Turkey, and Ukraine), and Mary's Meals (they feed the starving in many places). These are all reputable organizations that I have supported in the past and continue to do so.

I was more than pleasantly surprised to have 32 of our teens join us for our Lenten Day of Recollection. From what I am hearing back it was quite a fruitful day. The theme was the idea that God appears hidden to us, so much so that many a modern philosopher has dismissed God as a creation or a fantasy or even to say that God is dead. This is far from the truth for we know rather that man is God-haunted. He cannot escape the One who has made him. God is not so hidden, but rather we are blind and it requires His healing to begin to see Him where He is, especially in our life of prayer, in the Scriptures, and in the Eucharist. I found it quite rich and for those who went or had their teens attend, I pray that the fruits continue to surprise us.

I was also glad to see a good number sign up to join us for our Lenten Day of Recollection with Fr. Ryan Mahar. Alongside the book Be Healed and this Day of Recollection, we are also going to be offering a couple weekends where you can have someone pray with and for you. If you are familiar with Foundations of Faith, you may have experienced a similar prayer experience. The concept is the same. We will have trained prayer teams that will be able to pray with you after Mass as we implore God's mercy and healing. We will have a couple stations setup in the corners of the church where you can go and have one of the teams pray for you. You can be as general or specific as you want. The goal is to grow in the belief that the Lord can and does desire to heal us.

Next week we will also have a short handout with a number of prayers you can pray for healing on your own. I would just encourage you when praying them to pray out loud as they have a more powerful impact in that way.

May God bless you!

Scenes from Teen Day of Recollection

THE LENTEN SEASON

Lenten Regulations (abbreviated): Ash Wednesday through Holy Thursday, February 22 - April

Abstinence and Fasting. All persons 14+ years are obliged to abstain from meat on all Fridays of Lent. Abstinence from alcohol, TV, and electronic entertainment are also spiritually beneficial. Everyone ages 18-59 are obliged to fast on Good Friday (one full meal/day; two other small meals may be eaten but together should not equal a full meal; no eating between meals).

Confession. You are obliged to confess grave sins at least once a year and observe forms of penance.

I encourage you to please make use of it, especially if it has been many months or even years. Those who serve and minister before the Lord need to constantly be searching their hearts and seeking to grow closer to God, while also honestly assessing where there is need for conversion. There is a great opportunity for Confession coming up. On Tuesday March 7, Fr. Cleetus, Fr. Marcel, and Fr. Humberto will be joining me in hearing Confessions from 6:30 PM until everyone who desires to receive God's mercy in the sacrament has been able to do so.

Please take advantage of this opportunity and keep in mind, part of your commitment to serving in these ministries is living in a state of grace or friendship with God, for your own sake and for the sake of the Body of Christ.

Stations of the Cross. You are encouraged to participate in Stations of the Cross on Fridays.

Easter Duty. If initiated into the Holy Eucharist, you are bound to receive holy communion worthily at least once during the Easter Season.

Prayer, Almsgiving, Other Charitable Works. You are urged to read and pray with Sacred Scripture more intently during Lent and encouraged to participate in special devotions (Eucharistic Adoration, Rosary, Divine Mercy, vocations to priesthood, etc.). You are urged to give generously to assist the poor and support the charitable works of the Church, including the Annual Catholic Appeal. Other charitable works include visiting the sick, homebound, aged, and those in prison.

WEEKLY INSPIRATION

Reflect This Week Upon Your Sin

But do so as you also reflect upon the transfigured and glorious nature of our divine Lord. He came to bestow this gift of holiness on each one of us. This is our calling. This is our dignity. This is who we must become, and the only way to do so is to allow God to cleanse us of every sin in our lives and to draw us into His glorious life of grace.

My transfigured Lord, You shone in radiance before the eyes of Your Apostles so that they could testify to the beauty of the life to which we are all called. During this Lent, help me to face my sin with courage and confidence in You and in Your power to not only forgive but to also transform. My I die to sin more deeply than ever before so as to share more fully in the glory of Your divine life. Jesus, I trust in You.
