Dear Friends in Christ,

This week is a part of my summer break. I will be gone from Monday until Friday. I will be attending a liturgy conference in San Francisco. There will be Mass on Monday morning at 7AM but there will not be Mass the rest of the week until Friday. On Friday, we will have a 6PM Mass at SKD. The Mass time on Friday is just a one time thing.

One of the things coming up, now that we have finished with all of our celebrations is the Summer Seminar on the Apostolic Fathers.

If you are not familiar with these early Christian witnesses, you are in for quite a treat. Here is a little excerpt from the Old Catholic Encyclopedia:

"Christian writers of the first and second centuries who are known, or are considered, to have had personal relations with some of the Apostles, or to have been so influenced by them that their writings may be held as echoes of genuine Apostolic teaching. Though restricted by some to those who were actually disciples of the Apostles, the term applies by extension to certain writers who were previously believed to have been such, and virtually embraces all the remains of primitive Christian literature antedating the great apologies of the second century, and forming the link of tradition that binds these latter writings to those of the New Testament...

"...Chief in importance are the three first-century Bishops: St. Clement of Rome, St. Ignatius of Antioch, and St. Polycarp of Smyrna, of whose intimate personal relations with the Apostles there is no doubt. Clement, Bishop of Rome and, third successor of St. Peter in the Papacy, "had seen the blessed Apostles [Peter and Paul] and had been conversant with them." Ignatius was the second successor of St. Peter in the See of Antioch and during his life in that center of Christian activity may have met with others of the Apostolic band. An accepted tradition, substantiated by the similarity of Ignatius's thought with the ideas of the Johannine writings, declares him a disciple of St. John. Polycarp was 'instructed by Apostles' and had been a disciple of St. John whose contemporary he was for nearly twenty years. Besides these, whose rank as Apostolic Fathers in the strictest sense is undisputed, there are two first-century writers whose place with them is generally conceded: the author of the Didache and the author of the 'Epistle of Barnabas'. The former affirms that his teaching is that of the Apostles, and his work, perhaps the earliest extant piece of uninspired Christian literature, gives color to his claim; the latter, even if he be not the Apostle and companion of St. Paul, is held by many to have written during the last decade of the first century, and may have come under direct Apostolic influence, though his Epistle does not clearly suggest it."

The plan is to look at one of each of these three Bishops each week and cover a letter or epistle that they wrote and see what it tells us about the life of the early Church and learn some lessons that might just be applicable for us today. Perhaps you'll be able to join us for one week or three.

May God bless you this week!

COMMUNITY

Family Bowling Night: Friday, July 15

Friday, July 15, will be our family bowling night at Gold Country Lanes. All are welcome, young and old. If you would like to join us please RSVP to Ellen Waverly at 209-223-2970 or email her at cre@amadorcatholic.com.

Amador County Fair Booth: July 28 - 31

Volunteers are needed to cover 2-hour shifts at the Amador County Fair booth to greet people and, to the best of your ability, answer any questions they might have. A complete knowledge of the faith is not a requirement, just a joyful witness of our Catholic faith. The basic principle here is outreach to the wider community, fallen away Catholics, inactive Catholics, and those who are not yet Catholic. We will have a table filled with free Catholic giveaways — books, pamphlets, medals, crucifixes, rosaries and more, along with bulletins. If you are interested in signing up or for more information, contact Dan Olenchuk at 209-223-2970 or dec@amadorcatholic.com.

Parish Family Camping Trip: Friday, August 5, thru Sunday, August 7

This year we will be going on our annual Parish Family Camping Trip in August 5-7. We will be camping at Upper Blue Lakes in Markleeville up in Hope Valley.

If you would like to reserve a spot please contact Dan Olenchuk at 209-223-2970 or Dec@amadorcatholic.com.

SKD Learning Academy Begins in August

We are looking for parishioners who would like to donate to support our SKD Learning Academy, a Catholic Homeschool Assistance program. Your support can help make it a success. The campus is in Sutter Creek at Immaculate Conception and will open in August. There will be a donation board in the entrance area of the Parish Center or for more information, please contact Dan Olenchuk at 209-223-2970 or dec@amadorcatholic.com

Order Your SCRIP Today—Shop for the Food Bank Tomorrow!

www.shopwithscrip.com

Use SCRIP to add hot and cold cereals and other staples for the Food Bank to your shopping cart at Safeway, Save Mart, Raley's and Walmart. SCRIP is available for purchase at the Reception Desk in the Parish Center Tuesday - Friday, 9 AM to 4 PM, after Sunday Mass, by emailing:

scrip@amadorcatholic.com or by calling Linda at 209-223-1156.

All first time orders must be paid with cash or debit card.

DISCIPLESHIP

Eucharistic Miracles Display Available Online

The 100+ panels that display the Eucharistic Miracles from around the world were at St. Katharine Drexel for the past couple of weeks as part of a traveling exhibition. The stories are breathtaking, astounding, and almost too much to try and absorb all at once.

You can enjoy them online here: <http://www.miracolieuaristici.org/en/Liste/list.html>, or use this shortcut to the website: <https://tinyurl.com/2s4hr9w6>. The website categorizes the miracles by country and also includes stories of saints, mystics, and miraculous communicions. The exhibition is the legacy of Venerable Carlo Acutis, a teenager who devoted his life to learning, cataloging, and promoting the faith and the miracles before his death from leukemia in 2006. He was 15. Pope Francis declared him venerable in 2018

Faith Formation

Faith Formation for the 2022 - 2023 school year is underway. Registration forms for new and returning students are available in the Parish Social Hall. This includes classes for sacramental "Faith formation is more than a subject to be taught- it is an invitation to a way of life"

preparation for First Reconciliation, First Communion and Confirmation for students in Kindergarten through 8th grade.

Register today! If you have any questions, please contact Ellen at cre@amadorcatholic.com.

Want to Know More About Becoming a Catholic?

Do you know someone who is interested in becoming Catholic or do you know someone who might be interested in learning more about the Catholic teachings and what the Catholic Church is all about? Could that someone be you? If so, please contact Dan Olenchuk at 209-223-2970 or email at dec@amadorcatholic.com.

OUTREACH

Respect Life Ministry: Ways We Can Help Serve

There are many ways to serve the Respect for Life Ministry:

- Send an encouraging card to a pregnant mom or mom of a newborn.
- Donate to our rental assistance and motel voucher fund through Catholic Charities.
- Donate to your local pregnancy resource center or maternity home.

- Create a MealTrain and cook and deliver dinner for a new mother.
- Babysit for a mom in your church.
- Drive a pregnant mom or mom with small kids to doctor's appointments.
- Throw a baby shower for moms in your church.
- Donate needed items to foster youth.

- Join Walking with Moms in Need, Gabriel Project, or St. Vincent de Paul Conference at your Church
- Become a Court Appointed Special Advocate or a foster family.

Interfaith Food Bank: Suggested Donations

Suggestions for the Interfaith Food Bank are Hot and Cold cereal (whole grain, low sugar). The Food Bank can always use staple items such as tuna, peanut butter, canned veggies & fruit, and juice (canned, plastic or boxed). Any donation will be greatly appreciated. Please place your donated items in the box marked "Interfaith Food Bank" at SKD. Thank you so much for your support!

WEEKLY INSPIRATION

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: ...go and proclaim the Kingdom of God.- Luke 9:60

Discipleship isn't easy - it demands sacrifice and a willingness to be possibly without home or security. It takes precedence over family ties and obligations. But the rewards are immeasurable because the relationship of Jesus and his disciples is permanent and unconditional. Christ set us free by his saving death and Resurrection, and we are truly free when we live in the Spirit. Pray this week to continue on the path of discipleship, and for the courage and perseverance to make disciples of all nations by sharing the Gospel!
