Dear Friends in Christ,

Happy Easter! So continue these days of this glorious Easter season.

A special thanks to all who helped to make these last days quite rich, especially to our sacristans, lectors, ushers, musicians, altar servers, liturgical environment committee members, RCIA catechists, and all the rest! Thanks as well to all who donated eggs and candy toward our Easter Egg Hunts on Sunday. These children may have enough sugar to tide them over until Halloween!

With May quickly approaching we have our first ever Mother/Daughter Day, Paint & Sip Night, Chile Verde Dinner, First Communions, and Cemetery Cleanup days. And we thought that Lent was filled with activity! I hope you will be able to join us for some of these upcoming events. Summer is on the radar too. We'll have a Summer Schedule out soon.

Listen in on the words from our Holy Father at Easter Vigil this past week:

"...the women proclaimed. What did they proclaim? The joy of the resurrection. Easter did not occur simply to console those who mourned the death of Jesus, but to open hearts to the extraordinary message of God's triumph over evil and death. The light of the resurrection was not meant to let the women bask in a transport of joy, but to generate missionary disciples who

'return from the tomb' (v. 9) in order to bring to all the Gospel of the risen Christ. That is why, after seeing and hearing, the women ran to proclaim to the disciples the joy of the resurrection. They knew that the others might think they were mad; indeed, the Gospel says that the women's words 'seemed to them an idle tale' (v. 11). Yet those women were not concerned for their reputation, for preserving their image; they did not contain their emotions or measure their words. They had only the fire in their hearts with which to bear the news, the proclamation: 'The Lord is risen!'

"And how beautiful is a Church that can run this way through the streets of our world! Without fear, without schemes and stratagems, but solely with the desire to lead everyone to the joy of the Gospel. That is what we are called to do: to experience the risen Christ and to share the experience with others; to roll away the stone from the tomb where we may have enclosed the Lord, in order to spread his joy in the world. Let us make Jesus, the Living One, rise again from all those tombs in which we have sealed him. Let us set him free from the narrow cells in which we have so often imprisoned him. Let us awaken from our peaceful slumber and let him disturb and inconvenience us. Let us bring him into our everyday lives: through gestures of peace in these days marked by the horrors of war, through acts of reconciliation amid broken relationships, acts of compassion towards those in need, acts of justice amid situations of inequality and of truth in the midst of lies. And above all, through works of love and fraternity.

"Brothers and sisters, our hope has a name: the name of Jesus. He entered the tomb of our sin; he descended to those depths where we feel most lost; he wove his way through the tangles of our fears, bore the weight of our burdens and from the dark abyss of death restored us to life and turned our mourning into joy. Let us celebrate Easter with Christ! He is alive! Today, too, he walks in our midst, changes us and sets us free. Thanks to him, evil has been robbed of its power; failure can no longer hold us back from starting anew; and death has become a passage to the stirrings of new life. For with Jesus, the Risen Lord, no night will last forever; and even in the darkest night, in that darkness, the morning star continues to shine."

Lastly, this week I will be away from Monday after the 7 AM Mass until Friday afternoon. Just some days of R&R before we hit this Springtime with renewed zeal.

May Christ be your joy.
