Dear Friends in Christ,

Let us pray for all of our faithful departed in this month of November. These days we are reminded of our own mortality and how sooner or later, God will call us home to Himself. Let us then exercise charity for those who have gone before us and pray for them!

In the liturgy, heaven and earth are drawn together once more. It is why no matter how far we are from the ones we love, whether on earth or those who have gone before us in death, we are reunited in the liturgy. The liturgy is where the one perfect sacrifice of Jesus Christ for the whole world is once again made present and offered so that we might be reconciled to God. In a real way, liturgy is the place we call home. There we are loved as the children of God and reunited with all those who have gone before us in faith.

The liturgy was given to us by the Lord Jesus who gave us the command to celebrate it before He ascended to the Father. In paragraphs 1345-1347 in the Catechism of the Catholic Church we are reminded of the outlining principles of the liturgy:

“As early as the second century we have the witness of St. Justin Martyr for the basic lines of the order of the Eucharistic celebration. They have stayed the same until our own day for all the great liturgical families. St. Justin wrote to the pagan emperor Antoninus Pius (138-161) around the year 155, explaining what Christians did:

“On the day we call the day of the sun, all who dwell in the city or country gather in the same place. The memoirs of the apostles and the writings of the prophets are read, as much as time permits. When the reader has finished, he who presides over those gathered admonishes and challenges them to imitate these beautiful things. Then we all rise together and offer prayers for ourselves . . . and for all others, wherever they may be, so that we may be found righteous by our life and actions, and faithful to the commandments, so as to obtain eternal salvation.*

“When the prayers are concluded we exchange the kiss. Then someone brings bread and a cup of water and wine mixed together to him who presides over the brethren. He takes them and offers praise and glory to the Father of the universe, through the name of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and for a considerable time he gives thanks (in Greek: eucharistian) that we have been judged worthy of these gifts. When he has concluded the prayers and thanksgivings, all present give voice to an acclamation by saying: ‘Amen.’ When he who presides has given thanks and the people have responded, those whom we call deacons give to those present the ‘eucharisted’ bread, wine and water and take them to those who are absent.

“The liturgy of the Eucharist unfolds according to a fundamental structure which has been preserved throughout the centuries down to our own day. It displays two great parts that form a fundamental unity:

- the gathering, the liturgy of the Word, with readings, homily and general intercessions;
- the liturgy of the Eucharist, with the presentation of the bread and wine, the consecratory thanksgiving, and communion.

“The liturgy of the Word and liturgy of the Eucharist together form ‘one single act of worship’; The Eucharistic table set for us is the table both of the Word of God and of the Body of the Lord.

“Is this not the same movement as the Paschal meal of the risen Jesus with his disciples? Walking with them he explained the Scriptures to them; sitting with them at table ‘he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them’.”

May God bless you this week!

DISCIPLESHIP

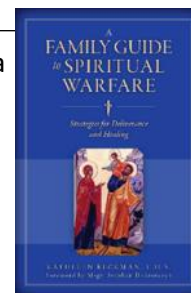

NOVEMBER: A Family Guide to Spiritual Warfare

Having served on the diocesan exorcism team for twelve years, Kathleen Beckman is in a unique position to author this comprehensive and well-written guidebook on spiritual warfare. Filled with real life stories, prayers, and mini teachings, Beckman leaves the reader encouraged, equipped, and empowered to see Christ’s victory when engaging in spiritual warfare. Learn how to use your baptismal, spousal, and parental authority to take back what rightfully belongs to Christ. We are vigilant about the material needs of our spouses and children, so we must also have a holy attentiveness to the needs of their souls! Available at the SKD Gift Store or at sophiainstitute.com

Military Veterans Prayer Group

We would like to start a Military Veterans Prayer Group led by Deacon Ray here at St. Katharine Drexel. We are looking at a couple of times that the prayer group could meet. One of them being Saturday morning at 7 AM or Sunday evening at 5 PM. If you are a veteran interested in participating in this group, please email Deacon Ray at deaconray@amadorcatholic.com and let him know which time works best for you.

EVANGELIZATION

Go Forth and Make Disciples of All Nations

The Gospel says “Go therefore and make disciple of all nations ...” This is our calling as Catholics to go out to the world and preach the good news. If you know someone who is interested in learning what the Catholic Church teaches and maybe even wanting to become Catholic, then they should come to “Discovering Catholicism” on Tuesdays. Please feel free to reach out to Dan Olenchuk for more information at 209-223-2970 or dec@amadorcatholic.com.

OUTREACH

Vote “NO” on Proposition 1 on November 8—Your Vote Counts!

Proposition 1 is a worst-case scenario for abortion in California. It is an expensive and misleading ballot measure that allows unlimited late-term abortions — for any reason, at any time, even moments before birth, paid for by tax dollars. Prop 1 isn’t needed. Sadly, California already has some of the most permissive abortion laws in the nation that would remain in effect without the amendment, including our current limit on late-term abortions that are permitted only for the life and health of the mother. Prop 1 destroys this common-sense limit. Don’t let lawmakers make California an “abortion sanctuary.” To learn more visit CAcatholic.org/Prop1.

Interfaith Food Bank: Suggested Donations

The “most needed item” suggestions for the Interfaith Food Bank are boxed meals (Hamburger Helper, macaroni and cheese, Rice-a-Roni), breakfast cereal, canned chili, soups, stews, ravioli, canned tuna, fruits, and vegetables, infant formula and diapers. Any donation will be appreciated. Please place your donated items in the box marked Interfaith Food Bank at SKD.

Thank you so much for your support!

WEEKLY INSPIRATION

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time - Formation, Formation, Formation

In today's first reading, we hear the amazing story of a mother and her seven sons. Not willing to obey the edict to eat pork and disobey the law of God, they each, one by one, are tortured and then killed, while their beloved mother watches, and encourages, and forms them in their faith, even unto death. We are all being formed, day-in, and day-out, by how we spend our time, what we read, what we watch, who we listen to, and the relationships we prioritize. Another beloved mother would come in time and cement for all eternity in the minds of every faithful Catholic the penultimate formation—the formation of Jesus, our Lord and Redeemer!
