Dear Friends in Christ,

We begin our month on stewardship. Now you might be thinking as I am, wait, did we not just talk about Liturgy for a month? Certainly. But we are just jumping from one theme to another. This weekend we will hear about the work God has been doing in our parish and be invited to start praying and discerning about how we will be stewards of the Lord in this coming year.

One thing that just blows me away at present is the amount of generosity of time, talent, and treasure around serving and loving those in need in our midst. Our SVDP Society regularly distributes between $90,000 to $100,000 of assistance all across our county. This year they helped about 2,400 people. There are so many excellent volunteers and generous parishioners who financially support their work. They are able to pay electricity bills, rent, car registrations, and more for so many in emergency situations and keep people in homes and employed. Alongside that we as a parish operate meal services for those in need on Thursday evenings and Saturday mornings. Thankfully we also get a lot of help from members of other church communities or charitable organizations as well. But we are a force for fulfilling the corporal works of mercy. There is more that we do but this just gives you a taste of it.

Alongside that the other day one of our younger staff members asked why there were all these different groups meeting at all times of the day and week. It is a testament to the growth of our small groups, both in number and kind. This is alongside the 7 Discipleship Quads currently in operation as well. So many of you have taken to heart the Clear Path of Discipleship and desire to grow in friendship with God. I would say one quality that makes our parish so strong is the number of parishioners who are disciples or are certainly on the way.

As well, so many were impressed and surprised by another full house of attendance of people, both parishioners and invited guests, joining us for our 9th session of Foundations of Faith. There is always the question that I try to dismiss, asking whether there is anyone else who will go in the next session. And all we find is people who are hungry or willing to invite friends or family to consider the deep questions of life around a delicious meal and beautiful conversation. So many this year were invited by parishioners, which just shows the powerful effect of disciples in our parish doing the work of invitation and evangelization.

Lastly, I am just quite thankful as we look at our financials from this previous year of how generous you have all been with your treasure. We met our one year Campaign Goal for our Parish Campus Renovation Project Phase 1. We also received an extra and very large gift to put us over it as well. Phase 1 is almost complete and there will have to be discussion in the future about the timeline for Phase 2, which would include the whole front facade of the building as well as the bell tower.

Those are just a few highlights that honestly leave me questioning if all of this is quite real. I am quite certain that it is. I am thankful to God for all of you and your serious commitment to discipleship made manifest through stewardship.

As we approach this new year of stewardship, I invite you to pray and discern about how you will be a good steward and disciple of the Lord with the gifts you have been given. We can certainly see how rich the harvest is when we put our gifts before the Lord in thanksgiving.

May God bless you this week!
