A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Honestly, I was a bit annoyed when the white smoke came pouring out of the chimney above the Sistine Chapel. I know! It sounds terrible. But I was driving to Sacramento to give a short talk to some Catholic teens and had a sense that this would interrupt everything. And sure enough, 15 minutes into my talk, Pope Leo XIV came out on the balcony above St. Peter's.

Now, people have asked me again and again what I think of him. Like most of you, I did not know much of the name except that he was the Prefect (think man in charge) of the Dicastery of Bishops. This is the group that proposes names of clerics to be bishops (after a thorough study and investigation) to the Pope - a very important job indeed.

So what do we know of importance besides that he was born in the United States and was a member of the Augustinians for most of his life?

From what I gather in his biography, he is a pastor and missionary at heart and an excellent administrator. If there are any pressing needs that we need the Bishop of Rome to fulfill, it is certainly both of those.

We will surely learn a lot more in the days, weeks, and months to come. The main thing to pay attention to with any pope is what he says in official addresses.

Based on that we heard in his words to the gathering of the Cardinals, here are some points of emphasis for him:

"...the return to the primacy of Christ in proclamation (cf. No. 11); the missionary conversion of the entire Christian community (cf. No. 9); growth in collegiality and synodality (cf. No. 33); attention to the sensus fidei (cf. Nos. 119-120), especially in its most authentic and inclusive forms, such as popular piety (cf. No. 123); loving care for the least and the rejected (cf. No. 53); courageous and trusting dialogue with the contemporary world in its various components and realities."

The citations are from Pope Francis's Evangelii Gaudium - on the proclamation of the Gospel in today's world. As well, he shared part of the reason he took the papal name of Leo:

"Sensing myself called to continue in this same path, I chose to take the name Leo XIV. There are different reasons for this, but mainly because Pope Leo XIII in his historic Encyclical Rerum Novarum addressed the social question in the context of the first great industrial revolution. In our own day, the Church offers to everyone the treasury of her social teaching in response to another industrial revolution and to developments in the field of artificial intelligence that pose new challenges for the defence of human dignity, justice and labor."

At this point, I am personally quite excited and I pray that Pope Leo may lead in the example of Christ the Good Shepherd so that we might all come to the fullness of life in God.

Also, a number of parishioners organized a goodbye celebration for some parishioners who are moving or have moved, including Joan Alimonti, Kevin and Terri Darr, and Deacon Jaime and Barbara Garcia. Deacon Jaime and Barbara have been in the parish for quite some time and are now moving to be closer to family. If you run into them before they depart, make sure to thank them both. We will miss them all.

May God bless you this week,

Past and present parishioners from Our Lady of the Pines gather at Iron Hub Winery to say farewell to friends moving away: The Darrs, the Garcias, and Joan Alimonti

CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY

St. Vincent de Paul Society

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers to harvest." (Matthew 9:37-38) St. Vincent de Paul Society members pray for those who contact us and our ability to keep helping. We are in serious need of volunteers, particularly in the Jackson area. Last month, we were very busy with calls for assistance and most came from there. We continue to serve an ever-increasing number of meals for Jackson clients at St. Patrick. Our parish has been very generous with donations and we thank you, but now we need your help more than ever. Is God calling YOU? Please contact us at 209-223-5865 or svdp@amadorcatholic.com for more information.

Cemetery Cleanup: Saturday, May 24

Join us on Saturday, May 24, at Jackson Cemetery as we do general maintenance and cleanup. We'll meet from 8 to 11 AM. Feel free to bring rakes, small saws, leaf blowers, gloves and loppers.

Annual Pints for the Padre Blood Drive: Saturday, May 31

St. Katharine Drexel will host the annual Pints for the Padre Blood Drive on Saturday, May 31, from 10 AM to 2:15 PM. There are three ways to schedule an appointment: through Vitalant's website, by phone at 877-258-4825 or by scanning this QR code. The Blood Drive code is 10055331.

Be Merciful, Just as Your Father is Merciful - Luke 6:36*Outreach

The Corporal Works of Mercy give us a model for how we should treat others with their bodily needs, as if we were Christ in disguise. Our parish has several outreach ministries that demonstrate Corporal Works of Mercy. All groups welcome new volunteers. See the list of Ministries and Groups on page 6 for more information or to help. Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Vincentians see the face of Christ in all whom they serve, offering person-to-person services to the needy and suffering. The organization invites all parishioners who may feel the call to help others.

Break Bread With Friends. BBWF is an ecumenical ministry that serves breakfast to anyone needing a morning meal. Bag lunches and fellowship are also freely given. St. Pat's Pantry. This is another ecumenical ministry, providing dinner and fellowship every Thursday.
